

Cedars-Sinai hires SSI-SEARCH to recruit Director Business Systems

Atlanta, GA (October 17, 2011), SSI-SEARCH, an executive search firm focused exclusively on healthcare technology leadership, has been retained to recruit a Director Business Systems for Cedars-Sinai, a major academic healthcare organization located in Los Angeles, California.

The Director of Business Systems is administratively responsible to the CIO and is accountable for project completion to key executives and key customers impacted by revenue cycle, financial, and administrative systems.

About Cedars-Sinai:

Cedars-Sinai Medical Center is a 909-bed general medical and surgical facility providing world-class medicine to patients across the United States and around the world. In the 2011-12 U.S. News & World Report rankings, Cedars-Sinai was named one of America's best hospitals.

About SSI-SEARCH:

SSI-SEARCH a leading executive search firm focused exclusively focused on the recruitment of health information technology (HIT) leaders, specializing in CIO and CMIO search for healthcare.